Dear Mr. Clark:

I am sorry to have missed you when you called on me in Toronto, but I was absent until Monday evening.

If President Westbrook speaks to me about a position in Romance Languages being ~~established~~ I shall be glad to mention your name to him. At present I do not know of any other opening in Canada. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

R. A. Falconer, Esq., LL.D., President of the University of Toronto,
Toronto, Ont.,

Dear Mr. President,

It is just possible.
that I ~~have~~ may be compelled, for family reasons, to spend next year in Toronto. I would be glad therefore to hear of to April 6 and if I am fortunate enough to be able to see you then, I shall be able to satisfy you as to my reasons for contemplating a step which may seem to you dubious. I am writing now because positions often open up about this time and I thought some such might come to your attention which you would not ordinarily think of interest to me but which, under these special circumstances, you might be willing to let me hear about. Hoping you will aid me if possible, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,
A. F. Bruce Clark

any teaching position that may become vacant for next year in or near Toronto — in public ^{high} or private school or college, tutoring etc; indeed any position of any kind for which my education fits me might be considered, apart from teaching altogether. If the eventuality I fear becomes realized, my presence at home will be imperative, and in such cases, of course, one cannot be a chooser. I cannot enter here into greater detail. I shall be in Toronto from March 28

Professor A. F. B. Clark,

23 School Street,

Brunswick, Me.

Dear Mr. Clark:

I am sorry to learn that your arrangements for next winter are of necessity in such an uncertain condition. If I hear of anything in the neighborhood of Toronto that suits you I will let you know. I will speak to Principal Auden and Dr. Macdonald. Possibly they may have something.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
